DELHI ADMINISTRATION

NOTIFICATIONS

Delhi, the 6th June 1964

No. F.28(20)/62-Lab.—The Chief Commissioner, Delhi is pleased to make the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Delhi Subsidised Industrial Housing Scheme (Allotment of Houses) Rules, 1963.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Chairman" means the Chairman of the Housing Allotment Committee;
- (b) "Committee" means the Housing Allotment Committee constituted by the Government;
- (c) "family" includes the wife or the husband, children, step-children, parents, brothers and sisters ordinarily residing and messing with a worker;
- (d) "form" means a form appended to these Rules.
- (e) "Government" means the Chief Commissioner or any other officer authorised by him in writing to exercise the powers conferred or duties imposed upon the Government under these rules;
- (f) "Scheme" means the Government of India subsidised Housing Scheme for Industrial Workers;
- (g) "House" means a house constructed under the Scheme together with all installations therein and appurtenances thereto;
- (h) "Wages" means the normal monthly wages earned by a worker, including dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances, but excluding over-time pay, bonus, travelling allowance or the cost of any other facility provided (like the C.P.F., gratuity on retirement, free medical attendance etc.).

3. Constitution etc. of the Committee and Sub-Committee.—

(1) The Government shall constitute a Committee to be known as Housing Allotment Committee for making recommendations to the Government in regard to the allotment of houses and ancillary matters. It shall consist of:—

- (i) Labour Commissioner, Delhi, (Chairman) or his nominee;
- (ii) Three representatives of the employers to be nominated by the Government;
- (iii) Three representatives of the workers to be nominated by the Government.

(2) For every meeting of the Committee, quorum shall be, besides the Chairman, one half of the total number of members, subject to the condition that at least one each of the representatives of the workers and employers shall be present:

Provided that in case two consecutive meetings of the Committee, for which prior notice was given, are not attended by a representative each of the workers and employers, the Chairman may, in the third meeting, proceed as if the quorum is complete.

(3) In the event of a difference of opinion, votes shall be taken and the opinion of the majority shall prevail, Chairman voting only in the event of a tie.

(4) The minutes of the meetings shall be duly recorded and after approval of the same by the Chairman, shall be forwarded by the Secretary to all the members.

(5) The Committee shall constitute a sub-Committee for making recommendations to it, in regard to change of houses, cancellation of allotment and such other matters which do not involve policy decisions. It shall consist of:—

- (i) One representative of the employers to be nominated by the Committee.
- (ii) Two representatives of the workers to be nominated by the Committee.
- (iii) Any officer authorised by the Labour Commissioner, Delhi, as Chairman.

(6) The provisions of sub-rules (2), (3) and (4) shall also apply to the Sub-Committee.

4. Eligibility for allotment.—The houses constructed by the Delhi Administration under the Scheme shall be allotted only to such workers as are permanent and bonafide employees of the factories duly registered in the Union Territory of Delhi under the Factories Act, 1948 and are governed by the said Act. The non-family workers or those whose families consist of male members only or those having owned/allotted houses within the limit of 5 miles from the houses constructed by the Delhi Administration, will not be eligible for allotment. It will also be within the competence of the Committee to restrict the allotment of houses to the employees of the factories situated within a specified distance from the location of the houses constructed under the Scheme.

5. Allottee to furnish Undertaking/Declaration.—Before occupying the house, every allottee shall—

- (a) furnish a declaration in form A agreeing to be bound by the terms and conditions of allotment;
- (b) give an undertaking in form B indicating the names of his family members who will reside with him in the allotted house; and
- (c) submit a certificate of identity issued by his employer and an authorisation in form C in favour of his employer.

The allottee shall also fill up the tenement possession certificate and the list of fixtures and fittings at the time of taking possession of the house.

6. Owner or occupier to execute agreement.—Before an offer of allotment is made to his workers, every owner or occupier (as defined in section 2(n) of the Factories Act 1948) of a factory shall execute an agreement on a stamp paper of the requisite value in the prescribed form agreeing to deduct licence fees etc. in respect of the houses allotted to his workers from their wages and remit the same to the Delhi Administration or any officer authorised by the Labour Commissioner, Delhi.

7. Order of preference for allotment.—A list (or lists, if necessary in the light of the provisions of clause 8 of the Scheme) shall be prepared by the Committee in order of the length of service of such workers whose wages are not more than Rs. 250/350 and who have not already been provided with suitable houses by the employers/Govt. or own their houses within 5 miles from the houses constructed by Delhi Administration and are desirous of allotment of houses constructed under the Scheme. No out of turn allotment shall be made to any person on what-ever grounds.

8. Allotments.—All allotments shall be made subject to the provisions of rule 7 and after obtaining approval of the Committee and shall be shown in a register to be maintained for the purpose. The allotment order shall be signed by the Labour officer, Delhi or any officer authorised by the Labour Commissioner, Delhi.

9. Subletting or sharing of accommodation.—(1) No worker shall sublet or underlet or transfer possession of the house allotted to him, or any part thereof, to any other worker or person.

NOTE.—Subletting includes sharing of accommodation by the allottee with or without rent with any person but shall not include such sharing with the member(s) of his family, or a casual guest.

(2) A worker found guilty of subletting or committing a breach of any of the terms and conditions of allotment shall be subject to such action (including cancellation of allotment, enhancement of rent, imposition of fine) as the Government may decide in consultation with the Committee to take against him:

Provided that:—

- (i) No penalty shall be imposed without giving the allottee an opportunity to explain his case verbally or in writing.
- (ii) allotment shall be cancelled only on the recommendation of the Committee in cases where a case of subletting or breach of any other term or condition has been established beyond doubt or where the allottee persists in the contravention despite warning/notice issued to him. In case of a worker who ceases to be an industrial worker and does not regain his status as such within a period of 6 months therefrom, the allotment shall be cancelled under orders of the Labour Commissioner, Delhi and in every other case under the orders of the Labour Officer, Delhi or any officer authorised by the Labour Commissioner, Delhi.

10. Cancellation of allotment.—(1) An allotment under these rules shall be effective from the date on which a house is occupied by the worker or from the 7th day from the date mentioned in the allotment order, whichever is earlier and shall continue until—

- (a) the worker ceases to occupy the house; or
- (b) it is surrendered by the worker concerned; or
- (c) it is otherwise cancelled under the provisions of these rules:

Provided that where a worker dies while in the service of his employer concerned or goes on transfer or retires or resigns or where the services of a worker are terminated by the employer or where a worker becomes ineligible owing to crossing the wage limit of Rs. 250/350 P.M., or where he otherwise ceases to be a worker as defined in the Factories Act, 1948, the allotment may continue upto the period as detailed below:—

- (i) in the case of death, transfer, retirement, resignation, termination of service, or otherwise ceasing to be a worker as defined in the Factories Act, 1948 a period not exceeding six months; and
- (ii) in the case of crossing the wage limit till such time the regular two-roomed houses are constructed by the Delhi Administration.

NOTE.—In all the above cases including the cases where the allotment is cancelled and the ex-allottee remains in occupation of the house, the usual licence fee will be chargeable from the worker for the first three months and economic rent for the remaining period.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of rule (i), the Committee may permit an ex-worker or his family, in exceptional cases of hardship, to continue to occupy the house on payment of the usual licence fee for a period of three months or if his case regarding determination of his status for eligibility is pending in a court, till the case is decided.

11. Licence fee.—The licence fee in respect of a house allotted to a worker shall be such as may be fixed by the Government and shall include the charges for special services such as street and common lighting, water and services rendered by the sweepers and the like.

12. General.—Subject to the provisions of these rules, it shall be within the competence of the Committee to lay down details of procedure for—

- (1) allotment;
- (2) Issue of notices, calling for meetings of the Committee and drawing up the agenda therefor;
- (3) any other matter arising out of the application of these rules.

13. In all matters concerning interpretation of these rules the decision of the Government shall be final.

14. The Government shall have the right to vary, add to, cancel or amend all or any of these rules from time to time and all such variations etc. shall be binding on the worker-allottees.

FORM 'A'

(See rule 5)

Terms and conditions of allotment of tenements in the Industrial Housing Colony, (Karampura) Najafgarh Road, New Delhi.

1. That, the allottee shall deposit an advance of Rs. as security for the due and punctual payment of the monthly licence fee in respect of the tenement allotted to him and proper observance of the terms and conditions, therefore. The amount shall be refunded only (a) on the termination of the licence and (b) after adjusting the dues if any, outstanding against him.

2. That, he shall pay the licence fee and other dues such as electricity and water charges or charges for special services such as street and common lighting, and services rendered by sweepers and the like, if the same do not stand deducted from his wages, due to any reason what so ever, as per the authorisation furnished by him in favour of his employer in the matter for each month, on or before the 15th of the following month or as directed to the person or persons authorised by the Labour Commissioner, Delhi for recovery of all dues.

3. That, the allottee shall not assign his rights of licence and shall not underlet or sublet or transfer temporary possession or share accommodation in whole or in part with any person other than bonafide members of his family, with or without rent.

4. That, the accommodation shall be used and occupied for the purpose of residence only by the allottee and by the bonafide members of his family and not otherwise. He shall not keep or store in or upon the said tenement any article of combustible dangerous nature as to endanger its safety or keep any animal or poultry therein.

5. That, he shall not carry out any kind of business in the said tenement or within the colony and shall not use the tenement in a manner as to cause any inconvenience or nuisance or annoyance to other allottees of tenements in the colony and shall also not use it for any illegal or immoral purposes and shall refrain from keeping in the tenement any person suffering from contagious or infectious disease.

6. That, he shall not allow refuse to collect in or near the said tenement and shall keep the tenement and the outer space thereto, in clean and sanitary conditions, and shall not use or allow to be the said tenement as a latrine or urinal.

7. That he shall not allow water from the tap to run waste and shall not use water for other than the household services and shall not consume electricity for purposes other than light.

8. That he shall not make any addition to or alteration in the tenement or any part thereof, and shall not remove any existing fixtures or fittings. He shall also not make any kind of enclosure around or in front of the tenement.

9. He shall pay water and electricity charges as may be fixed from time to time, and in case of any joint facility, shall pay his share as may be fixed by Government.

The allottee who does not wish to use electricity, shall inform in writing to the Labour Commissioner, who get his connection disconnected failing which he shall be liable to pay electricity charges.

That, he shall not cause damage to the tenement or any part thereof or to any fixture or fittings and shall pay compensation for any such damage or loss caused, as may be assessed by the Labour Commissioner. In case of dispute about the damage or extent of loss, the decision of the Labour Commissioner shall be final and binding.

11. He shall take possession of the tenement within 7 days of the date of communication of allotment order, and in case of his failure to do so, it will thereafter be treated as cancelled.

12. In case, he wishes to vacate the tenement, he shall give 15 days clear notice in writing to Labour Commissioner, or any other Officer authorised for this purpose, failing which he shall be liable to pay 15 days licence fee in lieu of notice period.

13. That, he shall allow the Labour Commissioner or any Government servants duly authorised by the Labour Commissioner, to enter in the said tenement on any day between sun-rise and sun-set or at any other time if the Officer so authorised, considers it necessary to do so.

14. The allottee shall not be legally entitled to remain in occupation of the tenement if he ceases to be a factory worker within the meaning of the Factories Act, 1948.

15. That, he shall be liable to be evicted if he has ceased to be a factory worker or has any arrears of licence fee or other dues outstanding for a month or has committed any breach of the terms and conditions or the orders of the Labour Commissioner or any other person authorised by him in this behalf.

16. That, the occupation of the tenement shall at all times be subject to these, conditions and such other conditions in addition to these, relating to the occupation of such as may be prescribed or as may be intimated from time to time by the Labour Commissioner, Delhi.

17. That before occupying the tenement, it shall be necessary for the allottee to fill up the tenement possession Certificate in the office of the Labour Commissioner.

18. That any arrears of licence fee or other outstanding dues from the allottee shall together with the costs of recovery be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

19. That, in the event of cancellation of allotment, the Government may re-enter and take possession of the tenement and for that purpose, may use or authorise the use of such force as may be necessary.
